THE BURNING QUESTION.
Long years ago I used to sing,
In accents meek and bland:
"I want to be an angel,
And with the angels stand."
Now, as with chilled blood I limp,
The mercury down to 20,
I'd rather be a little imp,
And go where heat is plenty.

UNFORTUNATE AFFAIR.

Preacher's Wife Creates a Scene at Penn Grove Campmeeting.

There was an unfortunate occurrence yesterday at Penn Grove Campmeeting at Mt. Olivet.

It appears that there was a misunderstanding between the wife of the Rev. S. H. Peoples of the M. E. Church, South, and a Mrs. Barnes, and during the controversy the former jabbed the latter in the eye with the ferrule of an umbrella.

Mrs. Barnes is quite badly hurt, and last night her condition was reported extremely serious.

KILLED THE ANIMAL.

Fine Horse of Charles Haughaboo Shot Sunday Near Dexter.

Mr. Charles Haughaboo, a prosperous farmer near Dexter, had a valuable horse shot and killed sometime Sunday evening.

During the day the animal had gotten into the garden of a neighbor named Thomas Mullen, and Mr. Haughaboo has brought suit against Mr. Mullen for $200, the value of the horse, on the supposition that he was instrumental in shooting it, or having it shot.

Mullen was before Squire Grant yesterday, waived examination and gave $100 bond to answer at the Circuit Court.

Mr. Mullen will be remembered as the man whose wife was killed in a runaway accident at Third and Plum streets in this city some months ago.

IMPORTANT INDUSTRY.

And the Farmers of This Section Have Reaped the Benefit.

An industry of considerable importance that is little known of by our citizens is the Forayth Log and Lumber Company that has been doing business in our midst for the past several months.

During that time they have bought for export to the Cincinnati and Chicago markets the following number of walnut logs, for which they have paid to our farmers and land owners a sum considerably in excess of $50,000.

Number of logs bought in—
Maysville neighborhood.....1,900
Orangeburg neighborhood.....1,500
Holena neighborhood.....2,500
Lewisburg neighborhood.....600
Along Narrow Gauge Railroad.....200
Total.....7,000

All this money has been left in the hands of the farmers in this immediate vicinity and it has been a source of rich revenue.

AND HE WENT!

How a Maysville Man Came to Go to Baltimore.

Dramatis Personae.

For the purpose of this "or true tale" the heroes shall be a well-meaning gentleman whom we will call Joe, and Dave Hechinger.

Just prior to milkin' time a few moons ago, Mr. Hechinger induced a Baltimore friend and capitalist to come out here and see the Bluegrass grow.

He came and saw; but he couldn't conquer his appetite for a pair of fine horses, so he bought 'em.

The next step was to get them home safe and in good order, and to this end he sought the experienced advice of Mr. Hechinger.

"I have the very man for you," said Dave. And straightway he sent for Joe.

Time—A half hour later.

"Joe," said Dave, "I have a friend who wants a good man to take a couple of horses to Baltimore next week and I have recommended you."

"Well, Dave," replied Joe, "if I don't know any more next week than I do now, I'll go."

"Then," said Dave, quick as a flash, "by gum, Joe, you'll go!"

And he went, though he never could understand what the crowd laughed at as Dave concluded his remarks.

A few nights ago some son-of-a-sea-cook broke into the Opera-house through one of the side doors of the auditorium. He must have been after the notes of the Orchestra.

Mr. David L. Dunbar, who has been so seriously ill at his home near Fearis the past four years, is not expected to survive much longer. To add to the afflictions of the family, Mrs. Dunbar is very ill with heart trouble.

If Judge OSBORNE of Cynthiaia doesn't know any more about law than he does about military affairs, he would be a devilish poor party to send to the grocery for potatoes.

"If Kentucky doesn't look out she won't have troops enough to go 'round for court-holding purposes" says The Commercial Tribune; but you've overlooked the fact that Maysville has just recruited a brandnew Company—and that there are others.

JUDGE OSBORNE, THE LEDGER is glad to say, has come to terms with Colonel WILLIAMS's soldier boys at Cynthiaia, and having overruled a motion of the defense for a continuance of the Jett-White case, the mills of the gods and Justice are grinding smoothly. It is hoped they will grind exceeding fine also.

It is now stated from Washington that the Bookbinders and Printers will not "walk out" of the Government Printing Office because of the reinstatement in his position by the Civil Service Commission, backed by the President, of a man whose removal had been ordered by the Bookbinders Union. This shows, at least, that Uncle Sam is still a "biger" man than the Walking Delegate.

THE Minneapolis Messenger recently threw this dornick into the camp of a large contingent of its patrons—

"There is a little matter to which The Messenger begs to call the attention of some of its subscribers. We really hate to speak of it, but some have seemingly allowed it to slip their minds. To us this is a very important issue—in fact, it's necessary in our business. We won't speak further on the subject. Perhaps you have already guessed the drift of our remarks."

And it's $5 to punched pennies that not a single cuss planked down the $hads.

THE toy-pistol-lockjaw wave that swept over the country after the glorious Fourth has subsided, leaving 218 young corpses in its wake.

THERE was last week a Special Grand Jury in session at Jackson, to investigate some recent killings in that Democratic stronghold, Breathitt county; and this is a chapter from the doings before that Grand Jury, written by the Editor of The Lexington Herald, a Democratic paper—

"On Saturday some one apparently a Juror—communicated to Mr. ALEX. HARGIS and one BILL BRITTON that one COLDIRON had identified the latter as one of the persons with JETT when JETT assassinated COCKRILL. It is a violation of law and contempt of Court for any one to divulge what occurs in the Grand Jury Room in the presence of the Grand Jury. Acting on this information a warrant for perjury was sworn out against COLDIRON, and Mr. ALEX. HARGIS made his way to the door of the Grand Jury Room and defiantly and clamorously demanded the indictment of COLDIRON for perjury, and without right a man named WILLIAMS, who is a schoolteacher, was forced into the Grand Jury to impeach the testimony of COLDIRON. The only interference by Judge REDWINE was to instruct the Jury not to indict COLDIRON; and the net result is that no indictment is found against BRITTON and SPICER for complicity in the assassination of COCKRILL, and none against COLDIRON for perjury. No steps were taken by Judge REDWINE to punish Mr. ALEX. HARGIS for his action in invading the province of the Grand Jury, forcing himself on them and forcing rebuttal testimony.

"We presume that this is without precedent in Kentucky—that a man indicted on the testimony of a witness swears out a warrant against that witness for perjury; has him arrested; has a friend to force the Grand Jury to hear other testimony, and has the vote ordering an indictment reconsidered. Mr. GREEN—who was so intimidated that he refused to appear except with his young child in his arms and his wife at his side, found, or thought he found himself unable to identify SPICER and BRITTON; COLDIRON swore positively that he did; yet he barely escapes indictment for perjury, and SPICER and BRITTON go scot free; and the Grand Jury obey implicitly the order of Mr. ALEX. HARGIS so far as SPICER and BRITTON are concerned, and Judge REDWINE apparently does nothing to call Mr. HARGIS to account for his extraordinary conduct, nor does he take any steps to ascertain by whom the leak from the Grand Jury Room came. And Judge REDWINE is a candidate for re-election and Judge HARGIS and his followers own the Democratic machinery of that Democratic county."

Political Pickings

Kelley the Missouri boddler claims to have done business with legislators at Frankfort. The fellows with itching palms and others at Frankfort seem unduly desirous of cultivating foreign acquaintances. Now it is T. C. Campbell of anywhere and nowhere; again it is Kelley of Missouri. Who shall be the next manipulator of reward funds or dexterous distributor of purchase money for legislators to figure at Frankfort?

"As Ye Sow, So Shall Ye Reap!"

The Bible so states, and the Bible is truth. Some sow wild oats and reap the whirlwind; others sow good deeds and reap contentment; but nearly every one sows wheat. In Mason and adjoining counties most every wheat sower contentment, because they sow wheat with a Richmond Champion Patent Double Disc Drill. Fact. If doubtful send for our testimonial book. There are over 530 farmers in this section using Richmond Champion Drills. We would like for you to see what they say. That little disc does the business. Each feed run has two discs and the wheat is delivered between them. These two discs hold all the dirt out until the wheat reaches the bottom of the furrow and then covers it from both sides. The rains beat the dirt to the wheat from both sides. The wheat is fed from both sides in growing. PROVIDENCE HELPS THOSE WHO HELP THEMSELVES. Do your part by seeding as common sense teaches you is best and leave the results to Providence. Look at a CHAMPION DRILL and see if it is a common sense way of seeding.

WE ARE FISHING

For your wagon trade. You will want a new wagon to haul off that wheat and house that tobacco, and we earnestly ask you to look at the wagon made by Mr. Fish. We sell the only farm wagon made by men named Fish, and are sincere in saying to you that we honestly believe that the genuine Fish Bros.' Farm Wagon is the very best one made. FISH BROS. NEVER FISH FOR SUCKERS, but they leave unpainted the underneath side of all axles, hounds and coupling poles so that you may see what kind of wood you are buying. If it is a good thing it is on a Fish Bros.' Wagon. Their long experience has added many beneficial patents until there are more exclusive good things upon Fish Bros.' Wagons than upon all others combined. We earnestly ask you to look at a Fish Bros.' Wagon.

NERVOUS HEADACHE

BREEDS INSANITY.

Many a person's whole pleasure in life is ruined by the fear of nervous headaches. Any little excitement, no matter what, business or social brings them on. The feet and hands grow cold, the head is hot, the eyes stiff, the temples throb, and only in the quiet of a darkened room is relief obtained. This condition must be checked or it means complete mental ruin. To those people Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills come as a blessing. They do not stop, they cure the headaches. They do not blanket, they build up. They put the nervous system in a strong, vigorous, sturdy condition—a condition that gives one resistive power and enables them to again enjoy life's pleasures.

Mrs. Minnie Aikman of No. 218 Lee street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I have been bothered for a long time with pains in the region of my heart and with racking nervous headaches. I was advised to try Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and I got a box of Chase's Nerve Pills and now I am happy to say that the heart pains and headaches are completely cured. I cannot speak too highly of these pills as they are an excellent medicine in every particular."

BAKING

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

There is a rumor to the effect that the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway people have their eyes on the Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville Road, and may endeavor to purchase it after the road is completed.

Mr. John Rummans and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Maggie Rummans of Maysville, were driving up Limestone street yesterday afternoon and as they neared Third the young horse became frightened at the approach of a streetcar, rearing up and falling on its back. The occupants in the meantime had leaped from the buggy. Mrs. Rummans was very much frightened but was otherwise uninjured.

Reese, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts of Carlisle, was playing with some playmates a day or so since when the little folks thought they would have a hanging, as they had heard so much about O'Brien and Whitney. They selected Reese as their victim, procured a rope, tied it to a limb, lifted the little fellow up, put his head in the noose, drew it tight and let him swing. Logan Anderson, a carpenter, happened along in time to take the little fellow down just as he began to strangle.

Ruggles Campmeeting.

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS, July 27th.
Special to Public Ledger.
Sunday night at 7:30 the Tabernacle was filled with a large congregation who listened intently to the earnest words of Dr. Dunham, the Evangelist, from the text, Romans xv. 1. "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus who walk not after the flesh but after the spirit," at the close of which both Preachers and people assembled around the altar earnestly seeking a fresh baptism of this Divine spirit.

At 10:30 this morning the Rev. A. H. Davis of Vanceburg preached from Mark ix. "As is faith so be it unto you," again at 3 p. m., Dr. Dunham, the Evangelist, preached from John xv. 2, "Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away and every branch that beareth fruit he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit." At the close of this discourse one lady was greatly blessed and professed sanctification. At night services he again preached from 1st John, iii. 21, "Beloved of our hearts condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God." This was a blessed meeting indeed. Dr. Dunham was full of the spirit and it had its effect on the congregation, for at the close more than fifty hands went up when the Evangelist requested for this sign from those who wanted all the fullness of the spirit of God.

The meetings are increasing in interest from day to day and souls are being saved. Our Maysville people are largely in evidence at this Campmeeting, and to them the prosperity of this association is largely due. Brother Harrop, our old beloved Pastor, being the Presiding Elder of the Covington District, is in charge directing all the exercises, and our Maysville people and the people of the Covington District know that it is in good hands.

Presiding Elder J. R. Howes of the Ashland District is assisting him. There are some twelve Preachers here—F. W. Harrop, J. R. Howes, A. Boreing, G. W. Howes, J. S. Young, G. N. Young, Rev. Grizzle, E. L. Shepard, Jason Davenport.

Miss Anna Gallimore, who has charge of the children, is a most devout worker, giving the strictest attention to the interests of the children, and the children are perfectly devoted to her and she has won all their hearts. Our young people, while enjoying the meetings, are also greatly enjoying these beautiful woodlands. One can see them between meetings scatter all over these twenty acres, some engaged in the innocent games of croquet, promenade, swinging in their hammocks, &c. Everybody is enjoying themselves. M. J. W.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.
"About 6 years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Maysville.

One's veracity might be questioned if he were to state that the high weeds and grass are taking the streets and byways. But it is stating the simple truth when we say a countryman who came to town to ship cattle by way of river lost a good-sized heifer Monday, and after looking all over town for the animal, found it at last peacefully resting in the high weeds that have taken possession of the extreme upper part of the steamboat landing.

The striking employees of the Lawrence, Citizens and People's Telephone Company, whose service extends to Ironton, Catlettsburg, Ashland, Wurtland, Russell and other cities and villages have appealed to the merchants of these places to remove the phones from their places unless the company takes back the girl operators who went out on a sympathetic strike. The company agreed to take back the linemen but these refused to work until the girls were reinstated.

WANTED.
We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower for the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and liver troubles that has not been cured; and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habituated constipation, nervous dyspepsia, headaches, despondent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact, any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try a 25¢ bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you. The 25¢ size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75¢. At Henry W. Ray's, next door to Postoffice.

CINCINNATI ATTRACTION.

Splendid Spectacle Arranged For The Coming Fall Festival.

A poetic incident in the life of Marco Polo, the great Venetian traveler and adventurer, serves as the frame work of a gorgeous spectacle, which will transfer the historic canal at Cincinnati into a semblance of the famed lagoons on the Adriatic during the Fall Festival next September. The scene will be laid on the celebrated Piazzetta of St. Mark's, where the white doves feed at will from the hand of the pascor by, and the most gorgeous panorama in christendom will be reproduced with absolute fidelity of detail.

There will be the basilica of St. Mark's flashing like a jeweled diadem, the slender campanile, the wonderful palace of the Doges, the Bridge of Sighs, and the Rialto Bridge; in short, all the environment of stately Italian life during the middle ages will be faithfully represented. The Squares of St. Mark's is a wonder place in the world. Over the Church door is the group of bronze horses that once graced the triumphal arch of Trajan, Roman Emperor, and desolator of Jerusalem. On tall columns, the Lion of St. Mark, emblem of the Republic of Venice, and a statue of St. Theodore the Martyr, keep watch over the remains of former glory. Curiously wrought sockets hold the crimson and gold standards of the Republic, while the flags of conquered lands decorate the Piazzetta. On this gorgeous scene the representatives of the great Nations will assemble to assist Venice in honoring the greatest of her famous sons, Marco Polo. Flower wreathed gondolas will bear the guests to the feast, through a myriad of floating lights. A superb ballet forms part of the spectacle, which has been mounted with artistic fidelity, absolutely without thought of cost, by celebrated theatrical managers, under the direct supervision of the artist, who designed the spectacle.

In addition to this magnificent production there will be the Industrial Exposition, Innes's and Sousa's Bands and high class entertainments in "The Park." There will also be a gorgeous night pageant.

Cholera Infantum.
This has long been regarded as one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases to which infants are subject. It can be treated, however, when promptly treated. All that is necessary is to give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, as directed with each bottle, and a cure is certain. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Several days rain is needed, not only here but almost everywhere, to even make a third of a crop of corn.

Mrs. Joseph Slack returned home Saturday from a visit to her sister, Mrs. John Broshers of Lewis county, who has been very sick but is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Richardson visited their sons, Messrs. John and Burr Richardson, near Mayslick and report the crop in that vicinity as looking very bad.

The protracted meeting at the Christian Church closed Sunday night. There were about 25 additions, 14 being baptized in the river at Robinson's Landing Sunday evening. Much good was done, and may it be for all time.

You Never Know the Moment When this Information May Prove of Infinite Value.

It is worth considerable to any citizen of Maysville to know how to be cured of painful, annoying and itching piles. Know then that Doan's Ointment is a positive remedy for all itching of the skin—for piles, eczema, etc. One application relieves and soothes. Read this testimony of its merit:

Mr. J. C. Gabby of 925 East Second street says:

"For many years I suffered severely from itching hemorrhoids. I bought every remedy I heard of, but do what I might the trouble grew worse instead of better. It was particularly aggravating after I retired and I lost much sleep because of the intense itching. I had the good fortune to learn of Doan's Ointment, and I bought a box at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. The wonderful relief I obtained from its use was almost beyond belief. I soon felt that I was cured. I continued the treatment for a time, however, to make assurance doubly sure."
